

1. Carmen Overture, Georges Bizet (France)

Bizet's second opera is so packed full of memorable melodies that it's guaranteed an almost permanent position as the world's most popular and frequently performed opera. Cymbals clanging, excitement and joy overflowing! This song is just the best!

2. In the Hall of the Mountain King, Edvard Grieg (Norway)

This song builds excitement and it gets louder and faster. Imagine kids spinning or running in circles until they drop, that's pretty much what will always happen!

3. William Tell Overture, Gioachino Rossini (Italy)

is great to use when you want to gallop around like horses.

4. The Flight of the Bumblebee, Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov (Russian) kids will immediately start running in circles and buzzing like bees. It's so much fun!

5. Radetzky March Op. 228, Johann Strauss I (German)

"Radetzky March", is a march composed by Johann Strauss Sr. and dedicated to Field Marshal Joseph Radetzky von Radetz.
